Analyzed Fuel Nutrition brand and outlined strategy to strengthen the brand's identity. I put together a concept design for Fuel's pilot men's saloon. The package included design guidelines, architectural drawings, and business strategies to help increase brand awareness and bring in customers.

Graduate Architect | Ae7

2017-2018

Worked predominantly on the Shell and Landscape team of a large scale multi-use project. Took over direct communication with overseas structural engineer team to work out structural details that represent the design intent of the facade. I also worked on iterative conceptual design options, 3D-modeling and drawings as part of developing the landscape strategy.
